The Financial Sky This Morning. The general financial situation as reported in this morning's dispatches is encouraging. Except the suspension of the well-known banking house of HENRY CLEWS & Co., no failure is reported from New York, nor none from any other quarter except Petersburg, Va., where some sort of local epidemic seems to have broken out among the banks. The failure of CLEWS & Co.-who were deeply in volved by their dealings in railroad section -caused a slight renewal of excite ment in New York, but it does not seen likely to lead to any serious consequ The precautions taken by the banks, with the readiness of the sub-treasury to throw currency into circulation by purchase bonds to any amount required, can hardly tail to tide over the trouble till all solvent parties have an opportunity to regain their feet. In giving a decision on this point, Judge BREEZE, of the Supreme Court of Illinois, says:

"The question arises: Where is the consideration for this contract? It does consideration for this contract? It does not move from the company, for they demand of the sender 50 per cent in addition for assuring the faithfulness of their own conduct. There is no consideration. ## CLARKSBURG FAIR.

Mesers. Editors.
Your correspondent "Hal," I think left our city and Fair a little too soon. After reporting very correctly on the 1st and 2d days of our fair, and kindly paying us a merited compliment on our fair grounds, buildings and fixtures, not ommitting the cattle and horses, for which Harrison county has almost a world's wide and exhibits the contestion and in which represents the series of the contestion and in which represents the contestion and in which we can be also as a contestion and in which we can be contested to the contestion and in the contestion are contestion and in the contestion and in county has almost a world's wide and ea-tablished reputation, and in which repu-tation she is making rapid and noble ef-forts to include sheep and swine, fruit and flowers—"Bai", feft. The display of vegetables, domestic goods, machinery, &c., was abundant and very creditable. But our friend "Hai" should have post-posed his departure, by all means, for one day longer, and, he would have seen such a swarning multitude of humanity that a swarming multitude of humanity that would lead him to blieve that Harrison county was one vast city—from early dawn up to 11 o'clock A. M., the people, men, women and children, came pouring in, in coaches, carriages, busses, wagons, carts, on horseback, and on foot, filling every avenue to the grounds with one long moving mass. The trotting, pacing, and running of horses as usual on the last day, did not a mount for much and I think and a mount for much and I think and running of horses as usual on the hast day, did not amount to much, and I think was not much regretted. The peope seem-ed to have a good time in examining the great abundance of articles on exhibition, and in the exchange of friendly greetings, salutation and conversations. New York, Sept. 23.—Every banking institution to Brooklyn, with a single ex-ception, was represented at the meeting of Presidents yesterday. It was determined of a run on any one of the banks all of the others would come to its assistance. It was also resolved that the savings banks, if necessary, should take stage of the thirty days clause in their charter.

A number of poor women and laboring men have gathered at the savinga banks awaiting their opening; but nobody seems to think that anything like a run will take place. Rev. William Quinn, Vicar Gencral of New York, was at the Emigrant Savings Bank yesterday, advising deposi-tors to leave their money with the bank, where it was sale. He promised to be on hand to-day

When he left London house was much attended to the clothes he wore. I cannot not here was no suspicion that the close of business in a condition of great excitement, and the headway made in restoring confidence was in a measure lost.

THE RUN ON THE SAVINGS BANKS. The run on the Savings banks was con-tinued to-day, but as the most of them have adopted the time rule for paying their depositors, the excitement soon sub-sided. Wherever a case of necessity transmodate oblige them. At some of the banks the officers say the enforcement of the time rule regarding the drawing of deposits was demanded by their largest depositors, and in one case it was adopted. In reference to such suggestions several of the largest banks are paying all the demands without regard to the amount.

Some of the poor people of Brooklyn became alarmed regarding their money in the various savings banks and drew it out. Only one bank took advantage of the time rule, the others paying as usual. The run was not heavy.

The Post says : "the banks have gone through the panic so far all right. It must be remembered, however, that since Sat-urday the business of the banks has been simply with the merchants. The active simply with the merchants. The active seconts of the Stock Exchange firms having by reason of the closing up of the Exchange been suspended. These firms probably had at least 500 accounts with the bank. The Friday and Saturday business of the Stock Exchange has still to be settled. Should the Exchange onen, money lenders who have failed to get responses on the loans called might rush in and force sales under the rule, which would throw everything into a panic again and injure the banks. To prevent such a state of affairs it has been recommended that the governing committee appoint a sub-committee commented that the governing committee appoint a sub-committee to-morrow to prescribe regulations by which settlements may be made before the Exchange is opened. It is the duty at the present time of all lenders and borrowers to treat parties to contracts with as much liberality and forbearance as is consistent without absolutely sacrificing legal rights. There will undoubtedly be found a merciless class who will demand their pound of flesh with or without blood, but it is for the interest of all that the concessions should be made for the public good which now emphatically means the good of individuals. We trust that the committee will act promptly on this suggestion."

This alternoon Mayor Havemeyer after of the Stock Exchange

will act promptly on this suggestion This alternoon Mayor Havemeye nsulting several gentlemen decided to ue an address on the present financia is and transmit it to a special meeting orisis and transmit it to a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen which was called for to-day. When asked what his views were about the panie the Mayor said he had intended to advise the working men and laborers of this city not to conperfectly seque, and that a run during the present panic might possibly result in the loss of both principal and and in-terest of the amounts deposited.

COMMERCE NOT AFFECTED. The Mayor turther said that in a time like this any bank should have time to realize upon its securities, so as to enable at to meet the demands of its depositors. The effect of the panic upon importing business, or the withdrawing of goods from the bonded warehouse for the current demands of the trade was hardly perceptible, as is shown by the receipts of duties. On the 17th the amount received at the Custom House was $332,165; on the 18th, $523,101; on the 19th, $933,059; on the 20th, $378,353; on the 22d, $337,280.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23.— Yesterday morning, Columbus and Reynolds Beam, brothers, went to Samuel's Station, three miles from Bardstown, and attacked G. W. Samuels of that place, with pistols, in front of his house. Samuels returned the fire with a shot gun, killing Columbus Beam instantly. Reynolds Beam then fired several shots at Samuels, when William Samuels, his son, ran out of the house with a double barreled shot gun, and discharging the contenus at Beam fatally injured him. Samuels and his son rode to Bardstown and surrendered themselves to the authorities. The affair has created great excitement at Bardshas created great excitement at Bards-town. It originated in too great inti-macy between Samuels and the wife of macy between Semuels and the wife of Columbus Beam, and the shooting has been threatened for some time by the Beams, who are highly respectable par-
